AI Disclaimer

Effective Date: May 15, 2026

Resources & Beyond is committed to providing valuable information, educational resources, and support to individuals, families, and communities. To enhance the quality and efficiency of our services, certain content, communications, and resources available through this website may be created, reviewed, edited, or supported using artificial intelligence (AI) technologies.

1. Use of Artificial Intelligence

Artificial intelligence may be used to assist in the development of website content, articles, educational materials, newsletters, marketing communications, forms, and other informational resources. All AI-assisted content is reviewed by Resources & Beyond before publication to help ensure accuracy, clarity, and alignment with our mission.

2. Informational Purposes Only

Information provided on this website, whether created by humans, AI technology, or a combination of both, is intended for general informational and educational purposes only. It should not be interpreted as legal, financial, medical, mental health, or other professional advice.

Users should consult qualified professionals regarding their specific circumstances before making decisions based on information provided on this website.

3. Accuracy of Information

While Resources & Beyond strives to provide accurate and up-to-date information, artificial intelligence technologies may occasionally generate incomplete, outdated, or inaccurate content.

Accordingly, Resources & Beyond makes no guarantees regarding:

- The completeness or accuracy of AI-assisted content
- The suitability of information for a particular purpose
- The absence of errors or omissions
- The availability or uninterrupted operation of AI-powered features

Information should be independently verified when appropriate.

4. User Responsibility

By using this website, you acknowledge that you are responsible for evaluating the accuracy, relevance, and applicability of any information provided. You agree not to rely solely on AI-generated content when making important personal, financial, legal, medical, educational, or business decisions.

5. No Professional Relationship

Use of AI-powered content, chat features, automated responses, or educational materials does not create a professional, advisory, counseling, coaching, legal, medical, or fiduciary relationship between you and Resources & Beyond.

6. Third-Party AI Services

Resources & Beyond may utilize third-party artificial intelligence platforms or technologies to improve website functionality, communication, and user experience. We do not control the ongoing availability, functionality, or performance of these third-party services and are not responsible for errors, interruptions, or limitations associated with them.

7. Limitation of Liability

Resources & Beyond shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or special damages resulting from the use of AI-assisted content, automated communications, or AI-powered features available through this website.

8. Changes to This AI Disclaimer

Resources & Beyond reserves the right to modify or update this AI Disclaimer at any time without prior notice. Any changes become effective immediately upon posting to this website.
